Costa Smeralda - Sardinia | Pantogia | Villa in the rock overlooking the Gulf of Pevero in Pantogia, unique for its architecture and its construction in the rock

Located in a hillside position in Pantogia, Porto Cervo, with an enchanting sea view of the Pevero Bay, in Sardinia, we offer for sale a villa, an undisputed masterpiece of the renowned architect Savin Couelle. Fully realized and set in the rock, the villa ensures the maximum scenic expression by giving large spaces and maximum living comfort, becoming a true intimate and protected retreat. With large interior spaces characterized by a sinuous movement given by vaults, arches, play of shadows, light and materials used, the villa is unique, ideal for those who love nature, respect it and want to savor it entirely. Throughout the property, rock is present and protrudes into the interior spaces, creating contrast with the luxurious yet traditional furnishings and finishes in soft and elegant colors. Light filters naturally from every room, thanks to openings made and desired by the Architect in strategic positions, playing with the surrounding habitat and framing enviable views of the landscape. From the outdoor verandas and also from the sleeping or living area
