DESCRIPTION

Trani - Prestigious apartment in a noble palace

Palazzo Broquier D'Amely formerly Lepore Campitelli In Trani, close to the place where sea and sky welcome the imposing and very white Cathedral, Rubino Immobiliare offers for sale exclusive apartment kept in the well-known Broquier Palace. If home is part of our life story, life in the rooms of the Broquier Palace is the unrepeatable experience of inhabiting history. Palazzo Broquier-D'Amely was owned by the Lambertini, a noble family of Bolognese origin from which Pope Benedict XIV, Prospero Lambertini, emerged. Built on medieval remains, in 1746 the Campitellis assumed ownership, shaping the building into its present form. The union between Geronima Lepore Campitelli and Baron Ottavio d'Amely gave rise to the D'Amely-Broquier family branches in the rooms of the palace. The frescoes on the vaults of the halls, which date back to the second half of the 18th century and are attributed to the Neapolitan artist Filippo Pascale, testify to the artistic richness of the place. The real estate unit can be reached from the monumental staircase located on the right side of the palace's wide courtyard entrance. We are greeted by a wide entrance to the prestigious hall with high frescoed ceilings and luxurious floors. From the central hall unfold around five rooms, two bathrooms, three storage rooms, the kitchen and a delightful level terrace. The prestigious solution would be ideal to be used as an accommodation facility or for anyone wishing to live history.
