PARMA, 2 steps from PIAZZA GARIBALDI AND PIAZZA DUOMO, in BORGIO XX MARZO, important historical building with internal courtyard, common parts in order we propose refined apartment, placed on the high floor, completely renovated. "Entering through the front door of the palace you can almost feel the "scent" of the eighteenth-century era, retracing an ancient pavement and observing the monumental entrance arches that emphasize the period of construction. Turning our gaze to our right we catch a glimpse of an elevator entrance, relatively hidden compared to the wide staircase by which you access the upper floors. Arriving on the third floor and after walking through a wide corridor exuding history, we cross the entrance door and what strikes us is the light coming in from the generous windows on the left, antique in style but modern in construction, which help to illuminate the large hall where the modern style fits perfectly with the ancient structure thanks also to a play of lights that make the atmosphere evocative. Each room is characterized by the presence of completely restored exposed beams, which highlight its authenticity. On the left of the hall, one walks down a corridor equipped by an elegant piece of furniture and enters a large bedroom characterized by the soft colors that reinforce its elegance and marked by two large windows overlooking one of the most prestigious streets in Parma, made so by the majesty of the buildings that give it uniqueness. Compared to the entrance, continuing straight ahead leads to a...
