DESCRIPTION

SPLENDID HISTORIC VILLA A STONE'S THROW FROM PESARO.

On the road between the Convent and Sant'Angelo in Lizzola we meet Villa Monti valuable architecture built in the '700 and perfectly restored, to the side of which there is a private chapel entirely frescoed. The beautiful historic villa in its present state is in fair condition, there is the possibility of renovation or remodeling according to the needs of the customer, it is the possible to create a possible panoramic terrace overhanging the park adjacent to the villa. The structure is ideal for a chateaux or an excellent location for the organization of events. There is a cultural heritage restriction on the villa. Below are some links with more information about the villa.
